

My feeling is that the Federal Government should not alter the New Jersey "Do Not Call List" criteria, or to rule it invalid. I was tired of all the unsolicited calls I received. The new law has eliminated more than ninety-five percent of such calls and I strongly support its continuance in its present form.